

Declarative and Interrogative Sentences

A sentence is a group of words that expresses a complete thought. A sentence begins with a capital letter. A sentence that tells something is a declarative sentence. A declarative sentence ends with a period. A sentence that asks a question is an interrogative sentence. An interrogative sentence ends with a question mark.

Declarative Sentence The library is full of interesting books.

Interrogative Sentence How many of these books have you read?

Directions Write D if the sentence is declarative. Write I if the sentence is interrogative.

1. A person who works in a library is a librarian. _____
2. Are pets allowed in the library? _____
3. The librarian asked us to be quiet. _____
4. Hetty loves books about travel. _____
5. Can I do my homework at this table? _____

Directions Write each sentence with the correct end punctuation mark.

6. Who is your favorite author

7. Do you prefer photographs or drawings in a book

8. Our town library has a children's section

9. When a pigeon flew into the library, everyone laughed

10. Where do I find the maps and dictionaries
