

Name _____

Declarative and Interrogative Sentences

Directions Read the interrogative sentences. Then use your own ideas to write a declarative sentence that answers each question. Possible answers:

1. Question Why is it hard to move to a new place?

Answer You don't have any friends in a new place.

2. Question Where would be a good place to make new friends?

Answer You can make friends at school.

3. Question What kind of pet might make a good friend?

Answer A dog might be a good friend.

4. Question: What is a good way to make friends? You can ask people

Answer if they want to play with you.

Directions Read the answers in the interview with Opal from Because of Winn-Dixie. Then write the questions you think she might be answering. Possible answers:

5. Question How did you feel when you first moved to Florida?

Answer At first I felt really lonely.

6. Question Did you have any friends?

Answer No, I didn't know anyone.

7. Question What did you do?

Answer I spent a lot of time in the library.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use declarative and interrogative sentences in writing. Have your child ask a member of the family three questions and write down the questions and answers in interview form.