Directions Write a description of something you like to do. Include adverbs to add details. Underline the adverbs. Possible answer:

In the summer, my uncle sometimes takes me water skiing. It's fun outside in the fresh air. I love hearing the engine noisily gain speed. Then the rope pulls me up. Soon I'm gliding rapidly across the pond.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use adverbs in writing. Ask your child to write a description of how to do a familiar action, such as brush teeth or make toast. Have your child use adverbs in the description and point them out to you.
