

Name _____

Vocabulary

Directions In an analogy, two pairs of words go together in the same way. Choose a word from the box to complete the analogies.

Check the Words You Know

___bow	___cargo	___celestial	___conducted
___dignified	___navigation	___quivered	___stern

- Books are used in education. Maps are used in navigation.
- Mail carriers carry letters. Ships carry cargo.
- The nose is the front of a plane. The bow is the front of a ship.
- The teachers administered the test. The scientists conducted the experiments.
- When you were still, it was a sign that you were calm. When you quivered, it was a sign that you were cold.
- Parents are loving. Ship captains are dignified.
- Whales are aquatic animals. Stars are celestial bodies.

Directions Use the words below in a sentence. Possible responses given.

8. stern

I stood by the captain at the stern of the ship as we headed out to sea.

9. cargo

At the port an official examined the ship's cargo.

10. navigation

The captain knew how navigation was important both day and night.