

Statements and Questions

A sentence that tells something is a statement. A sentence that asks something is a question.

Statement Most people save money.

Question Do you save money?

A statement begins with a capital letter and ends with a period. A question begins with a capital letter and ends with a question mark.

Directions Write statement if the sentence tells something. Write question if the sentence asks something.

1. There are a few different ways to save money. _____
2. You can put money away each week. _____
3. Do you always save your allowance? _____
4. You can buy the things you need on sale. _____
5. What is the best way to save money? _____

Directions Write each sentence with the correct punctuation mark.

6. Annie saves one dollar each week

7. Frank does not spend money on candy

8. Did you save your birthday money

9. Could we put the money in the bank

10. Saving money can be fun
