

Main Verbs and Helping Verbs

A verb phrase is a verb that has more than one word. The main verb shows action. A helping verb shows the time of the action. In the following sentence, telling is the main verb, and are is the helping verb.

The people are telling stories.

The helping verbs am, is, and are show present time. Was and were show past time. Will shows future time. The helping verbs has, have, and had show that an action happened in the past. In the following sentences, had and will are helping verbs.

He had told that story before. He will tell that story again.

Directions Underline the verb phrase in each sentence.

1. Native Americans had told interesting legends.
2. They were explaining the world around them.
3. I have heard legends about the sun and the moon.
4. In some stories, animals are talking like people.
5. Someday I will entertain you with the stories.

Directions Look at the underlined verb in each sentence. Write M if it is a main verb. Write H if it is a helping verb.
