

Adverbs

An adverb is a word that can tell when, where, or how something happens.

Yesterday, the family moved into a new home. (when)

They carried boxes inside. (where)

They happily unpacked the boxes. (how)

- Adverbs can come before or after the verbs they describe.
- Adverbs that tell how something happens often end in -ly.

Directions Underline the adverbs in the sentences.

1. Recently Jangmi said good-bye to her house in Korea.
2. Then she left the house.
3. She wandered around.
4. Jangmi quietly looked at her big bedroom.
5. She now was happy to be in her new house.

Directions Choose the correct word in () to write each new sentence.

6. The builders arranged the bricks (beautiful, beautifully) on the new house.

7. The painters (carefully, careful) painted each room.

8. They worked (safe, safely) on the roof.

9. They cleaned the house up (willing, willingly).

10. (Final, Finally), the house was ready for its new owners.
