Subject-Verb Agreement

The subject and the verb in a sentence must work together, or agree. To make most present tense verbs agree with singular nouns or he, she, or it, add -s. If the subject is a plural noun or I, you, we, or they, the present tense verb does not end in -s.

Singular Subject The bird sings a cheery song. She listens to the music.

Plural Subject The ducks eat the bread crumbs. We watch them.

A form of be in a sentence also must agree with the subject. Use is or was to agree with singular nouns. Use are or were to agree with plural nouns.

Singular Subject A grasshopper is hiding on the lawn. The ant was busy.

Plural Subject Crickets are singing in the trees. The insects were noisy.

Directions Choose the verb in ( ) that agrees with the subject. Write the verb.
