Quotations

Quotation marks (“ ”) show the exact words of a speaker in a conversation.

- Use a comma to separate the speaker's exact words from the rest of the sentence.
- Use a capital letter to begin the first word inside the quotation marks.
- Put the punctuation mark that ends the quotation inside the quotation marks.

“I can play music on my pipe,” said Elena.

She asked, “Shall I play for you?”

We replied, “That's a great idea!”

Quotation marks also indicate many kinds of titles, such as song, poem, and story titles.

We read “Elena's Serenade.”

Directions Underline the part of each sentence that is a quotation.

1. “I want to play the flute,” said Jeremy.
2. “I will teach you,” replied Ms. Foster.
3. Ms. Foster said, “Everyone will enjoy your songs.”

Directions Write the sentences. Add quotation marks and commas where they are needed.

4. Some of my songs are happy said Jeremy.

---

5. Ms. Foster exclaimed You play beautifully!

---

6. Jeremy can play a song named Paco's Dog.

---

Home Activity Your child learned about quotations. Have your child read aloud a quotation in a book you are reading together and then point out each punctuation mark and explain the reason for it.
