

Name _____

Subjects and Predicates

Directions Add a predicate to each subject to make a complete sentence. Write the sentence with correct punctuation.

1. A carpetmaker Possible answers:

A carpetmaker needs thread.

2. Two goats

Two goats played in the field.

3. A merchant in the village

A merchant in the village sold carpets.

Directions Add a subject to each predicate to make a complete sentence. Write the sentence with correct punctuation.

4. knows many important things

Everybody knows many important things.

5. builds houses and barns

A carpenter builds houses and barns.

Directions Think about a lesson you learned when you didn't expect to. Write four sentences that tell about the lesson. Possible answer:

I didn't expect a horse to teach me a lesson.

However, Brownie did. She showed me that it pays to be patient and take your time with animals.

I think that lesson works with people too.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use subjects and predicates in writing. Read a story together. Have your child identify subjects and predicates in story sentences.