

Name _____

DEVELOP THE CONCEPT

Statements and Questions

A sentence that tells something is a statement. A sentence that asks something is a question.

Statement Jill saved her money. Question Did Michael buy a bat?

A statement begins with a capital letter and ends with a period. A question begins with a capital letter and ends with a question mark.

Directions Write each sentence. Add the correct end punctuation. Write S if the sentence is a statement and Q if the sentence is a question.

1. Jacob got his allowance last week

Jacob got his allowance last week. S

2. He spent some money on a movie

He spent some money on a movie. S

3. Does Jacob have any money left

Does Jacob have any money left? Q

Directions Add one word from the box to make each statement into a question. Write the new sentences. Use correct capitalization and punctuation. Possible answers:

can will should do

4. The twins get money for their birthday.

Will the twins get money for their birthday?

5. They spend it on a new video game.

Should they spend it on a new video game?

Home Activity Your child learned about statements and questions. Have your child make up one statement and one question about an animal he or she likes.