

Name _____

Statements and Questions

Directions Use each subject and verb in a sentence. Add words to make the sentence complete. Each item will tell you whether to write a statement or a question.

Example: Statement: I want

I want a new bike.

Possible answers:

1. Question: books cost

Do books cost much money?

2. Statement: store sells

That store sells books and music.

3. Question: parents pay

Do your parents pay you to do chores?

4. Question: you save

Do you save much money?

5. Statement: people spend

People spend money on many different things.

Directions Write three sentences about a time when you saved money. Include at least one question. Possible answer:

I saved money to buy a CD I wanted. How did I save the money? I did chores for my next-door neighbor, Mrs. Booth.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use statements and questions in writing. Have your child write a letter to you that includes at least one statement and one question.
