

Name _____

Commands and Exclamations

Directions Write a sentence for each item. Follow the directions.

1. Write a command that you might say to a dog. Possible answers:

Put the toy on the floor.

2. Write an exclamation about a baby.

What a cute baby this is!

3. Write a command to a friend.

Come to my house after school.

4. Write an exclamation that shows surprise.

This is the best present I ever got!

5. Write a command to a family member.

Please turn off the television.

Directions Imagine you won a contest. Write one command and two exclamations about the experience. Possible answer:

I can't believe I won this contest! I've never won a contest in my life! Please tell me this isn't a joke.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use commands and exclamations in writing. Have your child make up one command and one exclamation that he or she might use while playing a game outside.
