

Name _____

Subject-Verb Agreement

Directions Use each phrase as the subject of a sentence. Add a verb describing an action that takes place in the present. Make sure each verb agrees with its subject.

1. Some trees Possible answers:

Some trees turn red in the fall.

2. An inchworm

An inchworm wiggles along a tree branch.

3. Many rocks

Many rocks fall onto the road.

4. A frisky squirrel

A frisky squirrel scampers across my yard.

5. A bumblebee

A bumblebee buzzes around the picnic table.

Directions Write two sentences about snakes. Use verbs that describe actions in the present.

Possible answer: Snakes are hiding under the rocks. They come out on sunny days.

---

---

---

Home Activity Your child learned how to use subject-verb agreement in writing. Ask your child to write sentences in the present tense about a favorite television program. Have your child circle each verb and explain why it agrees with the subject of the sentence.