

Name _____

Singular and Plural Pronouns

Directions Revise each sentence. Replace the underlined words with singular or plural pronouns.

1. Some people made a kite, and the kite lifted the people into the air.

Some people made a kite, and it lifted them into the air.

2. An inventor made big wings, but the wings could not support the inventor.

An inventor made big wings, but they could not support him (or her).

3. An inventor made a glider, and the glider had wings that made the glider sail through the air.

An inventor made a glider, and it had wings that made it sail through the air.

4. The first airplanes did not have an engine, and the airplanes were heavy.

The first airplanes did not have an engine, and they were heavy.

5. Orville Wright flew an airplane in 1903, but Orville Wright didn't fly the airplane very far.

Orville Wright flew an airplane in 1903, but he didn't fly it very far.

Directions Write three sentences about airplanes. Use at least two different pronouns in the sentences. Underline the pronouns. Possible answer:

Airplanes were a great invention. They enabled us to fly. We depend on them to go places.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use singular and plural pronouns in writing. Have your child write two sentences about a current event using a singular and a plural pronoun.