

Name _____

Subject and Object Pronouns

Directions Write each sentence. Replace the underlined words with subject or object pronouns.

1. When some people visited the South Pole, the people wore heavy coats to keep the people warm.

When some people visited the South Pole, they wore heavy coats to keep them warm.

2. Bob hiked in the desert, and Bob took plenty of water with Bob.

Bob hiked in the desert, and he took plenty of water with him.

3. Because the island is very wet, the island has many kinds of plants and animals.

Because the island is very wet, it has many kinds of plants and animals.

4. As Jack and Chris climbed the mountain, a guide went with Jack and Chris.

As Jack and Chris climbed the mountain, a guide went with them.

Directions Write three sentences about a place you think is amazing. Use at least one subject pronoun and one object pronoun. Underline the pronouns.

Possible answer: The Sahara Desert is very dry.

It also gets very warm. It is too hot and dry for me.

Home Activity Your child learned how to use subject and object pronouns in writing. Ask your child to write two sentences about an interesting place he or she has seen. Have your child use a subject pronoun and an object pronoun.