Proofread a Report Circle four spelling mistakes in this report about the gray fox. Write the words correctly. Write the word that should be used instead of don't in the last sentence.

A gray fox has a white troat and belly. It can run fast and climb trees. It may splash into the water and swim if it is skared and needs to escape. When hunting, it listens for the squeak of a mouse. If it sees movement, it srikes quickly. Sometimes in bad weather a gray fox don't leave its den for three or four days.
