

Short Vowels VCCV

Classifying Write the list word that belongs in the group.

- lunch, breakfast, supper
- toy, animal, puppet
- cabbage, spinach, lettuce
- box, container, basket
- reading, math, spelling
- placemat, tablecloth, napkin

Rhymes Finish each sentence. Use a list word that rhymes with the underlined word.

- Franco got a splinter when he built the shelves last winter.
- My sister uses a mister to spray the plants.
- I suggest that you get some rest.
- She will charge a dollar to sew your collar.

Spelling Words

happen
lettuce
basket
winter
sister monster
supper
subject

lesson spelling
napkin
collar traffic suggest puppet

Making Connections Draw a line to connect the first syllable with the second syllable to make a list word. Write each word you make.

First Syllable

Second Syllable

hap- -son
sub- -ster
les- -fic
traf- -ject
mon- -pen

- happen
- subject
- lesson
- traffic
- monster

Home Activity Your child wrote words with short vowel sounds. Have your child circle the VCCV (vowel-consonant-consonant-vowel) pattern in each list word.