

Name _____

Fact and Opinion

- A statement of fact is a statement that can be proved true or false.
- A statement of opinion is a statement of someone’s judgment, belief, or way of thinking about something. Although statements of opinion cannot be proved true or false, they can be supported or explained.

Directions Write F beside statements of fact and O beside statements of opinion.

- _____ F _____ Chicago has many different neighborhoods.
- _____ O _____ It’s much more fun to take the bus or the train.
- _____ O _____ Mexican ice cream tastes better than regular ice cream.
- _____ F _____ Pilsen is the largest Mexican neighborhood in any city in the country.
- _____ O _____ The Polish neighborhood has better food than the Mexican neighborhood.
- _____ O _____ It is better to feel like you’re not stuck in just one place.
- _____ F _____ The streets were filled with pagodas, fish markets, and restaurants.
- _____ O _____ The Chicago Food Market has the best fish.

Directions Write your own opinion of what it would be like to live in a city with many different cultures.

Responses will vary.
