

Name _____

Vocabulary

Directions Choose the word from the box that best completes each sentence. Write the word on the line.

Check the Words You Know

___ collectibles	___ credit	___ fond
___ kaleidoscope	___ porcelain	___ propped
___ rim	___ specialize	___ suspiciously

- The spoon was resting on the _____ rim _____ of the teacup.
- Tina worked hard to find the perfect present, so she deserves the _____ credit _____ for finding such a nice gift.
- You can see beautiful colors and patterns if you look through a _____ kaleidoscope _____.
- An antiques market is a great place for buyers to find _____ collectibles _____.
- The teacher looked at the boy _____ suspiciously _____ when he tried to hide candy in his desk.
- She was especially _____ fond _____ of long walks on warm summer nights.
- Please handle the _____ porcelain _____ dishes carefully, because they break easily.
- The broom is _____ propped _____ against the closet door.
- I brought my broken antique doll to people who _____ specialize _____ in repairing toys.