

Name _____

Character

-
- A character is a person who takes part in the events of a story.
 - The qualities of a character are known as character traits and usually tell about his or her personality.
-

Directions How are Sarah and Julia alike? How are they different? Use the Venn Diagram below to compare the two characters.

