

Snapshot Response to “Jalapeño Bagels”
by Natasha Wing

1. Is Pablo’s family’s bakery successful? What details from the Selection Snapshot support your answer?

Possible response: Yes, it is successful. Customers come to the bakery just to buy turnovers, and Mama and Papa set aside Pablo’s choice of treat so no one else buys it.

2. Summarize this Snapshot for a friend. What do you think is the most important part?

Possible response: I think the most important part is when Pablo chooses jalapeño bagels because they combine the culture of both his parents.

3. Imagine you are a food critic for the local newspaper. Write a review of Pablo’s jalapeño bagels. Use the boldface words from the Snapshot to get you started.

Responses will vary but should show an understanding of the boldface words and of the way the bagels are made.
