

Snapshot Response to “Elena’s Serenade”
by Campbell Geeslin

1. What did you learn about Elena? How might she act in other situations?

Possible response: Elena believes in herself. She is brave and kind. Elena might show these qualities in other situations.

2. What did you predict would happen when Elena and Burro met Roadrunner? Did you revise your prediction as you kept reading?

Responses will vary but should include relevant and appropriate predictions and revisions.

3. If prizes were given to unusual glassblowers, do you think Elena would get one? Make a list of reasons why she should—or should not. Use boldface words from the Selection Snapshot.

Responses will vary but should show an understanding of the boldface words and of Elena’s unusual glassblowing abilities.
